MYSTERY SURROUNDS DEATH OF RICH WOMAN

Physician Reports He Found His Wife Dead in Her Bed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Circumstances surrounding the death from poisoning yesterday of Mrs. Warren C. Sneden at the Hotel Vendome have led Coroner George F. Shady, Jr., to make an investigation, and he will hold an autopsy on the body today. Mrs. Sneden had been found dead in bed by her husband, Dr. Sneden.

Dr. and Mrs. Sneden had been patrons of the Vendome, off and on, for the last six months. Their last visit began six weeks ago. They said they came from Waveland, Fla., and are also reported to have had a home at Jensen. The Snedens were formerly well known in Brooklyn and at Riverhead and Jamesport, L. I.

She Was an Heiress.

Dr. Warren C. Sneden was formerly president of the Metropolitan Savings bank of New York. While living at Riverhead, L. I., in November, 1885, Dr. Sneden married Laura E. Dimon, the daughter of the late John E. Dimon, a retired merchant, who had amassed $300,000 in Lima, Peru, and who spent his last days at Jamesport, L. I. Mrs. Sneden and her sister, Mrs. L. I. Sneden, were the only heirs to the large Dimon estate.

For a few years after the marriage the Snedens lived at No. 131 Prospect place, Brooklyn, but in November, 1892, Mrs. Sneden left home with her four-year-old daughter, Rosalie, and went to the home of ex-Senate Senator Simon Hawkins at Jamestown, L. I.

Sues His Wife.

Dr. Sneden applied to the Supreme court in January, 1893, for a writ of habeas corpus, and upon the return Justice Bartlett made an order that the doctor must be permitted to see his daughter Rosalie once a week. Two months later Dr. Sneden sued his wife for legal separation.

Mrs. Sneden, in her sworn answer, admitted that on several occasions she had abandoned her husband, but declared that he had treated her with great cruelty.

Under the influence of their daughter Rosalie, the Snedens were reconciled, and on June 27, 1893, Justice Bartlett granted an order of discontinuance in the separation proceedings.

MONTANA COPPER WAR COMES TO AN END

Such Is Prevailing Opinion in Butte, Says F. H. Cooney of That City.

F. H. Cooney, president of the merchandise brokerage firm of Cooney Brothers & Walsh of Butte, spent Wednesday in Salt Lake, on his way home, after an extended trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles, Cal. He was well pleased with the prosperity that is apparent in Salt Lake and declares that it is evident to him that this city is approaching a great era of advancement.

Interests at Peace.

It is the prevailing opinion in Butte. Mr. Cooney asserts that the Amalgamated and Heine interests are at peace. And, what is more gratifying to the people of Montana, he declares that it is understood that the Amalgamated interests were compelled to listen to F. Augustus Heine through the effective manner in which the latter fought the suit. Mr. Cooney stated that he, like all the others of Montana, is jubilant over the ending of the great copper war, and that it is the summation of operations at a number of rich mines that have lain idle as a result of the litigation between the two great interests, all of which has been dropped. The end of the great conflict, Mr. Cooney declares, marks the advent of a period of greater prosperity in Montana.

Big Increase in Population.

Mr. Cooney maintains that Butte has increased in the last two months at least 15,000 people. It is difficult, he asserts, to estimate the increase in population, but he estimates that the increase is a great one, and that the city is in progress and property rises.

Has a Great Showing.

Mr. Cooney was the organizer of the Butte Copper Mining and Smelting company, the interests of which were only recently absorbed by the new East Butte Mining company, and through which he realized a neat sum of money. He states that the showing in the property is really as good as that in the North Butte ground, the stock of which created great excitement in the copper world by its rapid upward bounds.

Has Ten Shafts.

The property has ten shafts, nine of which are now producing approximately 150 tons of ore daily that will sell at 10 cents per ton. The deepest working on the property at present is 350 feet, but the tenth shaft is now being sunk to a thousand feet. The development work thus far done on the property is estimated by mining experts, Mr. Cooney states, to be worth more than a million dollars. He declares that the mine is making a wonderful showing and that the outlook for the camp was never more rosy than at present.

New University for Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The project for the establishment of a great university in Brooklyn, of which former Comptroller Edward M. Grout is the father and chief advocate, is now to be pushed forward with renewed vigor.

Petition for Administration.

Helen C. Channel has filed a petition in the probate division of the Third District court, of the estate of George Channel, deceased, who was her husband. The estate is valued at $250.

Change of LIFE

This perfectly natural change in a woman's life is too often accompanied by painful, distressing symptoms due to female troubles and slight irregularities in her delicate organism.

The woman who passes this change without the development of tumors, cancers, or chronic invalidism enters a new field of happiness and usefulness in the domestic circle and in social activity. Her physical system should receive the necessary assistance at this critical period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Is exactly suited to woman's needs at this time. It strengthens and cures all derangements of the female organism, it overcomes the hot flashes and dizzy fainting spells, and all other distressing symptoms.

I Was in Bed for Three Weeks

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered a great deal during Change of Life. For eleven weeks I had hemorrhages and I was so weak I was in bed for three weeks. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, although it was against my doctor's will and I had to hide it. I took it regularly until I had taken five bottles, and it brought me out all right, a perfectly strong, well woman. Any one can tell how healthy I am by looking at my picture, and any one can write to me or my daughter about our wonderful cures.

MRS. F. M. MUSHKUM, East Chicago, Ind.

The whole secret of safety at this time of life is thorough preparation before the change begins. Fortify the system with a course of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This wonderful medicine has carried thousands of women through this danger period.

No such helpful advice to women who are sick can be had anywhere as will be received free by addressing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

GREAT GATHERING OF SUFFRAGISTS

Susan B. Anthony Unable to Open Convention on Account of Illness.

GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND
DELIVERS AN ADDRESS

Meeting Is One of the Most Numerously Attended Ever Held.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 8.—The thirty-eighth annual convention of the Women's Suffrage association began here today and will continue until and including February 12.

The meeting is one of the most numerously attended gatherings ever held by the Women Suffragists in this country, nearly all the prominent leaders of the cause being present.

Council of State Presidents.

Proceeding the assemblage of the convention there was a meeting of the executive committee, and a council of state presidents, which was presided over by Harriet Taylor Upton of Ohio, which was also attended by the officers of the National association and the chairmen of various committees.

The evening session brought forth a disappointment in that the honorary president, Miss Susan B. Anthony, most anxious to have presided, was still too indisposed to attend, and the president of the association, Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, filled the vacancy.

Gov. Edwin Warfield of Maryland delivered an address of welcome. The resolution of the convention was to make it a "great gathering of suffragists."

Woman a Home-Maker.

"Woman is more than a homemaker; she is an individual and as such needs for her protection and development all that any other individual needs; she is a human being with all the hopes, desires and ambitions of a human being, and is entitled to every opportunity for the enlargement of her humanity to which any other human being has a right to aspire. She is a citizen, compelled to obey the laws and to maintain the Government and is entitled to all the rights and privileges as well as the responsibilities and duties of citizenship."

BATES LIEUT.-GENERAL

Senate Confirms Presidential Nominations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The Senate, in executive session, today confirmed the following nominations: Maj.-Gen. John C. Bates, U. S. A., to be Lieutenant-General; Brig.-Gen. Adolphus W. Greely, chief signal officer, to be Major-General; Col. James Allen to be chief signal officer with rank of Brigadier-General.

Postmasters: California—F. L. Bostwick, Laton; Washington—F. E. Felts, Ballard; C. A. Phillips, Wilbur; C. C. White, Waterville.

livered an address of welcome. The resolution of the convention was to make it a "great gathering of suffragists."

Talks on Birth Rate.

Mrs. Shaw, in her address, said in part: "While it is true that marriage and the birth rate have decreased within recent years, before the results are charged to the participation of women in industry one must answer many questions."

"As a matter of fact, it is a new thing for women to be engaged in industrial pursuits. From primitive times women have been great industrial factors and modern economic conditions, instead of introducing them to industries, have introduced them to the world's markets from the earliest times have been engaged with ever-widening circles of activity, as inventive genius has developed and civilization progressed."

Conditions of Employment.

"If conditions surrounding their employment are such as to make it a 'real' question of the first importance," it is unfortunate that President Roosevelt did not see that women, the most deeply interested factor in the problem, should constitute at least a part of any commission authorized to investigate it."

"I trust that a resolution will be passed by this convention petitioning the Government to place women on every commission which investigates the conditions which so deeply affect their lives and the lives of their children."

"One can but wish with the reorganized desire for 'fair play' and his policy of a square deal it had occurred to the Government that if the million American women are employed in gainful occupations every principle of justice known to a Republic would demand that these five millions of toiling women should be enfranchised to enable them to secure and enforce legislation for their own protection."

"All we are asking for women, 'the queens of the home,' is the unquestioned right and power to care for its highest interests. If they would and they would not if they could. The homes of today and tomorrow can never be like those of yesterday."

"There never was a time when there was as great a number of as good housekeepers and homemakers. The home ideal of today is the best the world has yet known and it will continue to develop as larger freedom and broader culture come to all who share its life."

Officers Leave for England.

The Japanese officers will proceed via Seattle and the United States tonight en route to London.

The Shinkano Maru, which was in the fleet that landed Oku's army at Pitsewo for the attack on Nanshan, and which was the first steamer to sight the Russian fleet at Tushima, when she acted as an auxiliary cruiser of the scouting fleet, will now continue in her old service.

JAP NAVAL OFFICERS ARRIVE IN AMERICA

Heroes of Late War Going to England to Take Over Two Battleships.

VICTORIA, Feb. 8.—The steamer Shinkano Maru, recently released from the Japanese naval auxiliary service, arrived this morning on her first trip since she resumed the service to the United States, bringing the officers of the new Japanese battleships Katori and Kashima, now being constructed in England.

Capt. Sakamoto, who will command the Katori, was in command of the battleship Yoshima, which was sunk by a mine off Port Arthur on May 15, 1904.

He said it was then considered policy to keep secret the news of the loss of the Yoshima, which foundered in daylight in hitting a mine twelve miles from shore. All her crew was saved.

Among the party, which included twelve officers and seven warrant officers, was Chief Engineer T. Kurita, who was engineer of the steamer Fukui Maru when she was sunk in the Fairway of Port Arthur by Commander Hirose, since worshipped as a hero in Japan, who lost his life with many officers in the blockading expedition.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ORDERED TO SEATTLE

Duties Outlined of Commissioners in Investigating Valencia Wreck.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Formal directions were issued today by President Roosevelt for an investigation of the Valencia disaster, which occurred recently on the North Pacific coast. The instructions are contained in a letter to Secretary Metcalf of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

President Roosevelt's letter follows: "The Secretary of Commerce, Sir: You are hereby directed to instruct Lawrence O. Murray, assistant secretary of commerce and labor, and Herbert Knox Smith, deputy commissioner of corporations, as well as Capt. William T. Burwell, U. S. N., who will for this purpose be detailed for service in your department by the Department of the Navy, to proceed to Seattle, Wash., and there make thorough and complete investigation of the circumstances attending the wreck of the steamer Valencia and the cause or causes thereof."

"Any misconduct, negligence or dereliction of duty upon the part of any one related thereto and having any bearing upon the loss of life occasioned by said disaster, will be inquired into, and, also, as you may see fit, to investigate such other matters bearing upon the safety of traffic in navigable waters of the United States in that vicinity and the effectiveness and sufficiency of the present aids to navigation along said waters and to make full report thereon, with recommendations for such departmental or legislative action as may be indicated by said report and findings. Very truly yours, THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Will Start West Thursday.

Messrs. Murray and Smith will leave here tomorrow morning and go direct to Seattle. Admiral Burwell, commandant of the Bremerton navy yard, will meet them on their arrival.

In anticipation of the work of the commission, Secretary Metcalf has wired the officials of the department in Seattle to secure accommodations for the hearings and to have ready all the testimony, evidence and the exhibits as described at the inquiry of the local inspectors.

MAKE MOVE DISFIGURING

Real Estate Association Present Petition to Council.

Steps looking toward the too common practice of pushing in streets and sidewalks, which has become both a nuisance and a danger, were taken Wednesday morning at a meeting of the Real Estate Association, held at the Council chamber, which was attended by a large number of members.

It was agreed that without delay the association would petition the Council asking the enactment of a law prohibiting the practice of pushing in streets and sidewalks, and that the association would also take steps toward the enforcement of the law.

Want Clean Streets.

The association also took steps toward the enforcement of the law by the removal of the petition to the Council asking the enactment of a law prohibiting the practice of pushing in streets and sidewalks, and that the association would also take steps toward the enforcement of the law.
